The News.

The steamer Pacific, which arrived at St. Johns yesterday, brings us Liverpool dates to the 9th inst. The Atlantic Telegraph Company have petitioned to the Government for aid in carrying out the enterprise, and Lord Derby promises to lay their memorial before the Commissioner of the Treasury. Breadstuffs and provisions are reported dull in the Liverpool market. The Government of France has decided to allow the appeal of MONTALEMBERT to come before the Superior Court. The Government will probably discover that MONTALEMBERT is no easy customer to deal with, and the tyrant who rules France learn that there is yet one man within his dominions, in whose bosom the spirit of independence exists.

We have later news both from California and Mexico, which will be found interesting.

Breadstuffs were firmer, while pork was less active in the New York Market yesterday. We have no change of importance to note in our markets. Wheat and pork keep up well in regard to prices, but receipts yesterday were quite light.

Arrest of a Wife Murderer--A Black-Hearted Wretch.

Our Detroit exchanges of Tuesday bring us an account of the arrest of a wealthy Indiana farmer, at that place, named JONATHAN S. OWEN, for having poisoned his wife about three weeks ago. OWEN's wife, it appears, was buried, but upon suspicions being excited the body was disinterred, and the guilty husband immediately fled to escape arrest. The circumstances, as related by the Sheriff of the County where OWEN resided, are as follows:

Some time since OWEN made an attempt upon his wife's life by striking her on the head with an axe. She was injured severely, and a surgical peration was rendered necessary, by means of which a portion of her skull was removed. She recovered, and he having represented that the occurrence was accidental, the blow having been inflicted when the two were in the yard, where he was chopping, no notice was taken of it, nor would it have attracted suspicion but for subsequent occurrences. About three weeks since his wife was found dead in her bed in the morning. She had been up and at work as usual on the day before, and went to bed well at night.—The consequence was that he had hardly got her well under ground before the neighbors began to give vent to their suspicions, which at once alarmed him. They found where he had bought some strychnine a short time before, and the old ladies putting their heads together, coupled the present circumstance with the fact that one of their number had died sixteen years before, in exactly the same manner, all of a sudden, she being the first wife of the now suspected man. The mysterious disappearance of two of their number without the slightest warning, and under the same circumstances, confirmed them in the belief that there was foul play afloat. Another circumstance, not the slightest in their estimation, was, that he had a woman living on another part of his farm, whose connections with him were of the improper order, a circumstance which they failed not to discuss to its full extent. It was finally resolved to disinter the corpse, and the proper authorities were accordingly summoned and the operation at once proceeded with. At this turn of affairs, which occurred ten days after the death, he became alarmed and left the country by way of the nearest railroad, passing by the assumed name of Moore. The chemical examination of the stomach of his wife revealed the presence of a large quantity of poison.

He came directly to Detroit and crossed over to Windsor, and thence went back into the country, where he remained some days, and then, with a view to realizing some means, wrote to his son, enclosing a power of attorney, and directing him to sell his farm, valued at five or six thousand dollars, and send him the proceeds.—By this means it was ascertained that he was at Windsor, and Messrs. TUTTLE and CRAMP, of the Detroit detective police, being informed of the circumstance, set themselves to ferret out his whereabouts. He was traced through to his residence a few miles from the river, and Monday was arrested on the opposite side of the river from Detroit, having come in to await an answer from his son, and been recognized by Deputy Sheriff BRATT, of Windsor. The Sheriff of this county, Mr. WM. H. SCHOOLER, had been at Detroit several days, and immediately took charge of him. He was thrown into the greatest trepidation, and seemed in mortal agony from fear of the consequences.

He is a man of about forty-five years of age, is rich, and has borne a good character with the exception of the frailties which have been ascribed to him in connection with the female above mentioned. He was ambitious to be regarded as a Christian, and was somewhat distinguished in his own circle as a maker of long and loud prayers, being a member in good standing in the Methodist church, and occupying the position of deacon.

The State Treasury.

The Madison Journal of Wednesday brings us some extracts from the Report of the State Treasurer for the year ending on the 30th Sept. last.

The Treasurer makes the following statement of the claims on the general fund which were outstanding on the first of October last:

Appropriations made by the Legislature and certified to the State Treasurer, unpaid	$358,874 90
Audited accounts certified to the State Treasurer, unpaid	24,959 90
Balance of appropriations for Capital enlargement	15,587 60
Balance of appropriations to Wisconsin Hospital for the Insane	13,735 40
Salaries due October 1st, 1858	19,487 50
In addition to the above the following will be due and payable before the receipt of State Tax for 1859:
Bill for printing Revised Statutes (estimated)	16,400 00
Bill for printing vol. of Town Laws,	4,150 00
Postage for four months, do	1,000 00
Gas do do	950 00
Clerks in offices of Secretary of State, Treasurer, Bank Comptroller, not included in regular salaries	6,000 00
Salaries due January 1st, 1859	19,487 50
Furniture, Gas fixtures, &c., for rooms in Capitol enlargement, (estimated)	6,000 00
Printing, binding, freight and miscellaneous claims (estimated)	19,000 00
To which should be added the amount the General Fund is now overpaid	27,823 04
	$201,910 94

Making an aggregate of $201,910 94 due and payable from the General Fund before the receipt of the next State Tax due on the second Monday of February next.

Arrearages now due from the counties on State Tax	$64,576 80
Bank Tax due January 1st, 1859	55,915 21
Railroad Tax due from Racine & Mississippi R. R., for the years 1856 and 1857	2,886 81
Aggregate	$123,378 82

Should the whole of this amount be promptly paid, there would still remain $75,232 52 of indebtedness to be paid out of the next State tax. The Treasurer estimates, however, that not over $76,000 will be received from these arrearages, and consequently a balance will be left of over $125,000 to be paid from the next State tax.

The Journal adds to the above figures and estimates the following remarks:

The necessity of the heavy State tax levied by the last Legislature, may be gathered from these facts. Year after year, Legislatures have shrunk from the responsibility of levying a tax sufficient to meet the demands against the government, and thus one year's indebtedness has lapped over upon the next. The next State tax will pay off all the old demands, and with a short session, and reasonable economy, which the people expect from the next Legislature, it will not be necessary to levy a tax of over $200,000, or at the outside, of $250,000, for the next year.

A short session, very little legislation except a few necessary amendments to the new Revised Statutes, and a prompt, unqualified, absolute refusal at the outset to be led into fooling away any time on the Assumption Scheme by the sharpers of the lobby, seem to be what is demanded by the people, of the next Legislature.

THE BALL SEASON.—The season of festivities is at hand, and a solemn question among young men is "how shall we work it this season—money scarce, many of us out of employment, but we must attend balls." We must let them answer that question themselves. The ball season to young men is a very serious business. "Taking a lady" involves a number of expenses which walk a great way into a week's salary, and very often absorbs the whole of it.—First, there is the ball-ticket; then the carriage hire; possibly an elegant bouquet, certainly a supper; a pair of white kid gloves, probably a cravat, may be a shirt—but this is only timidly suggested. Besides these, there is "that money," drinks, and contingencies—a serious list of items to young gentlemen whose salaries range from six to fifteen dollars p r week. It is therefore no great wonder that they sometimes "shirk" the lady part of the business, and try to impose upon the rights of some of their gentlemen friends, or charitably relieve a poor fellow who is blessed with two single sisters.

This method is, however, generally pronounced a "humbug." An individual, in such a case, is uniformly pounced upon by a class of feminine nondescripts of the most uncertain ages, variable complexions, and all sorts of toilets—a description of wall flower beauties, who think it necessary to add to their low-necked dresses, capes covered with ruches and ribbons, exhibit a constant agitation and nervous anxiety as to whether they shall get a partner, and pester the unfortunate brother or cousin upon whom they hang a claim, to introduce a succession of nice, handsome, young men, quite unconscious that the nice young man aforesaid would meet such a proposition with—"Oh! come now, Dick: not so bad as that. Willing to stretch a point for a friend, but couldn't go farther back than your grandmother."

CHRISTMAS EVE ENTERTAINMENTS.—Our people will be at a loss how to amuse themselves this evening. All manner of entertainment are announced for the occasion. Church festivals will be particularly numerous to-night. The congregation of the Free Church of the Atonement have a festival in the new hall in Young's Block. It is under the auspices of the Ladies, and that is enough to insure its being of the right kind. The scholars of the Sabbath School connected with the Spring street M. E. Church, also have a festival this evening, the proceeds of which are to be devoted to the improvement of their library. There will be a large gathering of young folks there, and it will doubtless be a pleasant affair.

The Christmas Eve dance at the Layton House should not be forgotten. There will be good music, a capital supper, and altogether it will be one of the most enjoyable occasions of the season. We are indebted to the gentlemanly host of the Layton House for a card of admission, and we shall endeavor to avail ourselves of his kindness.

Then there is the Atheneum also, and we observe the announcement of a capital bill for this evening, "Therese, the Orphan of Geneva," with "Jack Sheppard" for an afterpiece.

The members and others connected with the Albany Mission Church, in the Fifth Ward, also have a festival this evening, for the benefit of their Sabbath School Library.

SEVENTH WARD HIGH SCHOOL.—The public examination of the Seventh Ward High School closed yesterday afternoon. The result was highly satisfactory; the pupils showing great proficiency in their several studies and marked improvement during the last term. A very large number of the friends and patrons of the school were present during the exercises and expressed themselves much gratified.

Last evening the teachers and scholars of the High School took supper together at the Newhall House, in honor of their first anniversary, and afterwards, with a number of their friends, spent an hour or two in pleasant social converse.

CHRISTMAS DINNER AT THE NEWHALL HOUSE.—Messrs. KEAN & RICE, the popular and liberal landlords of the Newhall House, announce a sumptuous dinner for Christmas Day. The bill of fare includes everything in the way of soup, fish, meats, game, vegetables, poultry and confectionery, that the most exacting epicure could desire; and the reputation of the Newhall House cuisine is an all-sufficient guaranty that everything will be served up in the best style. Dinner commences at 4 o'clock. Those who partook of the Newhall House Christmas Dinner last year will not be likely to lose this opportunity of enjoying another such a feast there.

LESSONS IN LANGUAGES AND MUSIC.—Professor KURSTEINER, late of the State University at Madison, but now instructor of Languages and Music in the Second Ward High School, offers his services, through our advertising columns, to individuals, or classes, desirous of taking private lessons in the Languages, or Music. Professor KURSTEINER is a highly educated and accomplished gentleman, and is, besides, an admirable instructor. If any of our readers desire, for themselves, or for their children, the services of a thorough Teacher in Latin, German, French, Instrumental or Vocal music, they can secure one in Professor KURSTEINER.

OYSTERS, WILD GAME, &C.—Our ever-mindful friend DOWE, the gentlemanly and efficient Agent in this city, of S. O. MALTBY, the celebrated Oysterman, has our thanks for a fine brace of Prairie Chicken and a "hugo" can of Baltimore Oysters—the first Christmas presents which have made their appearance in our larder this season. "Ed" is some, and can't be beat in his line. His store (No. 12 Wisconsin street,) is always supplied with the finest Oysters, the greatest variety of Game, the choicest Fruits, &c., &c., to be found in this market. Christmas is at hand; give him a call.

SECOND WARD HIGH SCHOOL.—The examination in the Second Ward High School closes at noon to-day, and the afternoon session will be devoted to declamations, essays, music, &c. We hope to see a full attendance of the patrons and friends of the school.

For the Sentinel.

The Late Benjamin Lett.

DEAR SIR:—As I believe that certain statements, recently published in your paper of the 11th, in reference to my unfortunate brother, who came to his death in your city on the 9th inst., are calculated to do him great injustice and needlessly to wound the feelings of his friends, and believing you to be mis-informed, and that you do not desire to do my brother's memory wrong, I write this note to correct your information upon the subject. There is no proof that one of the desperate acts which you say my brother committed were ever done by him. The authority for these statements, (except so far as they relate to the firing of the steamer Great Britain in Oswego,) is nothing else or better than certain trashy literature, such as "the Bravo of the Lakes," the "Queen of the Thousand Islands," &c. No man who knew the grounds upon which these charges rest, would give them credence for a moment. My brother was convicted of firing the steamer Great Britain, upon the testimony of DEFOR, who actually did the act and testified that my brother was his accomplice, and advised him to do so, and thereby secured his escape. It is not necessary for me to argue the question as to what weight ought to have been given to this testimony, or would have been given to it in times of less excitement.

It is true that my brother took an active part in the border troubles of 1837-8, but so did hundreds of the best men on the borders, and this is the only one of all the charges made against him, of which there ever was evidence sufficient to justify the making of the charge. I submit that this matter is not one that concerns the public, further than to set the matter right now. His memory should not now be burdened with unfounded accusations, but should rather be left to those who were acquainted with him and know his honesty and generosity of character. Please insert this note.

Yours respectfully, THOS. LETT.

ARREST OF A REGULAR SHOP-LIFTER.—Yesterday, about noon, a woman giving her name as ETTA ETTENBERG, was discovered in the act of stealing china-ware from the crockery store of TURRELL & DEWEY, East Water street, by one of the clerks. She was detained in the store until an officer was sent for, and then taken to the Station House. She was accompanied by a little girl about ten years of age, her daughter, who had several of the stolen articles concealed under her cloak. She had nearly a basket full of china, when detected, considerable of which was ornamental ware. After she had been arrested, the Chief of Police thought it expedient to have her house searched, and for this purpose sent a couple of officers there. They found a large quantity of dry goods, millinery and yankee notions of various descriptions, which were all undoubtedly stolen. Some of the articles are of considerable value, and many of them can be identified, as the store keepers' marks are still on them.

It is quite likely that Mrs. ETTENBERG has been doing an extensive business for some time past in the way of shop lifting.

THE SOUP ROOM.—The soup room in Main street, is now finished, and open for donations, a proper person being placed there during the day to recieve them. Applicants will be received on and after Monday next, the 27th inst., from 11½ A. M., until 2 P. M. Tickets will be offered for sale at the residences, stores, and offices of our citizens, twenty-five for $1.

The soup house is a public charity, open to all, of whatever nation or creed, and, it is not supported by any sect or society; therefore let the public support it generously by purchasing tickets, and also by giving freely of their abundance, whether it be money or such articles as are consumed—such as wood, meat, bread, vegetables of all kinds, rice, salt, &c., and it will be the care of those interested in its management, to see that these gifts are not wasted or misapplied.

THE COSMOPOLITAN ART ASSOCIATION.—The drawing of this Association will positively take place on the 1st of January next, now near at hand, when every subscriber will receive a copy of the much admired engraving "the Village Blacksmith," and the fortunate holders of the lucky numbers will show some of the finest works of art now in this country, embracing bronzes, paintings, statuary &c., there to be distributed.

Milwaukee should furnish a large list of subscribers, for whatever tends to foster and give direction to a love of art in our community deserves encouragement and aid. The engraving which every subscriber receives is fully worth the amount of subscription, while the Art Journal will be a welcome visitor to every fire side. Persons who intend to subscribe, should bear in mind that they will not have an opportunity to do so after the first of the approaching month, and it would be well for them to hand in their names immediately. Subscriptions may be left with Mr. M. G. ELMORE, acting secretary, 166 East Water street.

THE NEW FREIGHT ROUTE.—Our merchants and shippers will, doubtless, be gratified to learn that the Detroit & Milwaukee Rail Road Co. have chartered the propeller Michigan to run between this city and Grand Haven during the balance of the winter. The Michigan is now taking in a cargo of flour, pork, beef, and general merchandize, from the Company's dock at the foot of Main street, and she will probably leave to-day or to-morrow at farthest, on her first trip. The schooner Milwaukee Belle is also loading, and it was expected that she would get off last night or this morning, in tow of the tug Natter, with a full cargo. The Company find their hands full, having two or three cargoes of freight still on hand here, awaiting shipment.

A PLEASANT TIME EXPECTED.—The scholars connected with the Sabbath School of the Free Church of the Atonement, expect to have a fine time of it this evening. They are to meet at the church first, and from there march to Young's New Hall, where they are to have a festival to which their parents and friends are all invited.—The festival will close with singing and other amusements.

BOY IN THE RIVER.—A boy some 15 years of age, named HANS BACHERT, skated into a hole in the ice, under Huron street bridge, yesterday. After getting a good ducking he was rescued by some persons near by. Boys should be very careful in skating about the bridges and docks, for although the ice is pretty strong in the middle of the river, there are many weak places in it near the sides.

THE CHARTER CONVENTION.—This body was in session all day yesterday, and made considerable progress with the charter; going through with nearly one-half of it. They meet again at 9 o'clock this morning, in hopes of getting through with the rest of the charter to-day.

LATE NEW YORK PAPERS.—MCSORLEY, of the News Depot, 36, Wisconsin street, sends us the New York papers of Tuesday, in advance of the mail and Harper's Weekly for Christmas week.—The latter is filled with stories and illustrations, appropriate to the Holidays.

DISTILLERY BURNED.—The Wisconsin says that the distillery of LOUIS HELBERG, on the Lisbon Plank Road, about two miles from the city, was burned down on Tuesday. We do not learn the particulars, but presume it was a trifling affair.

THE ATHENEUM—A DISAPPOINTMENT.—The debut of WM. A. BURGER, the reputed "star"—fixed we presume—at the Atheneum, does not seem to have been a very brilliant affair—so we judge from the comments of our cotemporaries not having personally witnessed the performance. Manager JOHNSON appears to have been slightly "taken in" with regard the merits of the "tragedian," and unwilling to impose upon the public, refused to allow Mr. B. to make his "second appearance," so that it was found necessary to change the programme for last evening. Instead of Damon and Pythias the Lady of Lyons was performed, and well done too. In the afterpiece, the Alarming Sacrifice, Mr. LAMB, assisted by Miss ALFORD, did the funny part to perfection.—LAMB is becoming an especial favorite with the patrons of the Atheneum, and no one of the entire corps would be missed more than he. For this evening the plays of Therese, the Orphan of Geneva, and Jack Shepard are announced, Miss IRVING and Mr. RILEY representing the principal characters in the former, and Miss. ALFORD and MR. LAMB in the afterpiece.

JUST THE THING FOR A CHRISTMAS PRESENT.—Messrs. PHILLIPS, SAMPSON & Co., of Boston, have just issued, amongst their numerous holiday offerings, a beautiful volume, entitled the "Arabian Days' Entertainments," a fit companion for the world-renowned Arabian Knights. It is a translation from the German, consisting of a series of highly interesting tales, suited as well for young people as readers of maturer intellect. The book is very handsomely bound, printed with large, clear type, and illustrated with numerous spirited engravings. Messrs. HERMAN & WHITNEY, No. 175 East Water street, have it for sale, and also a large variety of other works, suitable for holiday gifts.

There were free sales of La Crosse during the day—the stock from 8¾ in the morning dropping to 2½ in the afternoon, with rather a heavy market even at this attenuated quotation. One of the rumors in the street in regard to the La Crosse Road, is that proceedings of foreclosure are about to be commenced under the Third Mortgage, of which we understand the amount of $100,000 has been issued. We cannot vouch for the accuracy of this report, but that summary measures must soon be taken under one of the mortgages, we have but little question. An entire reorganization of this concern on a new basis will be essential to its proper management and development.

FORGERY.—Day before yesterday Deputy U. S. Marshal Brick POMEROY arrested ANDREW J. CLARKE of this city, on the charge of forging documents and affidavits for the purpose of obtaining Land warrants. CLARKE was released on $300 bail, for his appearance before the U. S. Court at the next session of the Grand Jury.

CLARKE has resided here about a year, or so, during which time he has pretended to practice law. His partner, a man named FEUERWANGER, who is suspected of complicity in the fraud, has absconded since CLARKE's arrest.

GOOD THINGS FOR CHRISTMAS.—Messrs. DE MOR & RAYMOND, of 18 Wisconsin Street, are provided with all manner of good things for Christmas eating. They have every kind of game in the market, consisting of prairie chickens, patridges, quail, ducks, venison, &c., besides fat turkeys and fresh oysters. They also keep a full assortment of excellent family groceries.

☞ ALTON & AYRES hold their regular semi-weekly sale of Dry Goods, Yankee Notions, &c., this morning at their Auction Rooms, 148 East Water St.

PUBLIC MEETING.—The citizens of the 8th Ward are hereby requested to meet on Friday, the 24th of December, at 7 o'clock in the evening, at Mr. ANSBACH's Saloon, on Elizabeth street, 8th Ward, for the purpose of taking the new proposed City Charter into consideration.

MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

ALLEN'S SPECIFIC POWDERS.—The Proprietor, a Physician, having resided in the East Indies for upwards of fourteen years, with considerable study and perseverance after Medical Science, discovered a vegetable product of nature, which possesses extraordinary virtue, and exerts an influence hitherto unknown in the animal economy.

A solid extract from this plant (which is indigenous to China, but grows also in India,) prepared in the form of powders, will aid and assist nature, when apparently defective, and remove the cause of debility in married ladies, or females, from the age of 21 till upwards of 40 years.

The Physician, being a Botanist, while in China, as a Medical Officer during the late war, discovered the active principle of the plant, which invariably invigorates the whole system without producing any deleterious effect, on the contrary, it will restore a weak and debilitated constitution to health and strength. Thus, renewing and fortifying the frame towards the desired object.

The married portion of the female sex having no offspring, can procure packages of this invaluable medicine from the proprietor, Doctor ALLEN, or MARY ANNE, at his office, Grove street, Fifth Ward, first house south of Fire Engine No 7, or from his agent, Mr. E. A. LEE, Druggist and Apothecary, No. 100 Main street, Milwaukee.

Printed instructions and directions for the use of the medicine will accompany each package, with the written name of the proprietor, to prevent the possibility of any counterfeit forging his signature.

The genuine medicine can only be procured in Milwaukee, from the Proprietor or his Agents, by applying for it at their residences or by letter enclosing one dollar for each package, which will insure the safe transmission by post to any part of the United States, or elsewhere, to the address of the purchaser.

Doctor A. will attend patients as Physician and Surgeon for one dollar each visit within the precincts of Milwaukee. And will give medical advice free, at his residence, from 9 till 11 o'clock every morning, Sundays excepted.

Mr. Gladstone, in a speech to the Senate, said that his mission was simply to inquire how England can most satisfactorily discharge her obligation to Ionia.

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.

Various memorials were presented, and a message was received from the President.

Mr. Crittenden, of Ky., introduced a bill to regulate the manner of electing U. S. Senators. Referred to the Committee on Judicial Affairs.

Messrs. Fitzpatrick, of Ala., Iverson, of Ga., and Bright, of Ind., objected, and the Senate refused to take up the bill by nays, 28; yeas, 20.

A debate next sprung up on the bill giving a pension to the widow and family of Col. Turnbull, which warmly discussed by Crittenden, which occupied considerable time over the morning hours.

Mr. Davis, of Miss., in the course of his remarks upon it, said that if army officers of high attainments are to be retained in the service at a small pay, they were entitled to a liberal construction to the rules.

Mr. Houston, of Texas, as usual in all cases of old soldier's widows, spoke zealously in its favor. Finally, $30a month was granted, by a vote of 24 against 18.

HOUSE.—Mr. Comins, of Mass., introduced a bill for regulating the duties on imports, and for other purposes.

Mr. John Cochrane, of New York, proposed a resolution of thanks to Capt. Daniel C. Reed, for having designed the present flag of the U. S. Referred to the Committee on Naval Affairs.

On motion of Mr. Geo. Taylor, of N. Y., a special committee of five was ordered to be appointed, to investigate the accounts of the late Superintendent of Public Printing, with power to send for persons and papers, and report at any time.

Messrs. Ritchie and Morrison have severally made unsuccessful efforts to introduce propositions looking to the alteration of the tariff, with a view to protection and specific duties.

Mr. Grow, of Pa., asked, but failed to obtain, leave to introduce a bill fixing the annual meeting of Congress on the second Monday in November.

Mr. Phillips, of Pa., introduced a joint resolution authorizing the President to confer the title of Captain-in-Chief for eminent Naval services. Referred to the Committee on Naval Affairs.

On motion of Mr. Bocock, of Virginia, a resolution calling on the President to inform the House whether any measures had recently been taken to procure a reduction of the duties by foreign governments on American tobacco, was adopted.

Mr. Covode, of Pa., asked leave to introduce a resolution for the appointment of a committee of five to enquire into the facts charged by the President of the U. S., contained in the letter to the President of the Centenary committee at Pittsburg, that money had been thrown into Pennsylvania to influence the State Congressional election in opposition to his wishes, and report the names of the persons implicated.

The introduction of this resolution was objected to amidst loud laughter.

On motion of Mr. Taylor, of N. Y., the committee on Ways and Means were instructed to inquire into the expediency of repealing so much of the act as provides for the debasing of silver half-dollars, and other small coins, and making them legal tender in sums not exceeding five dollars.

Mr. Taylor also introduced a bill authorizing Louisiana to impose tonnage duties for the improvement of the channel of the Mississippi.

Mr. Benjamin, of Ohio, introduced a bill to repeal the English act for the admission of Kansas into the Union; was referred to the committee on territories.

Mr. Leiter, of Ohio, introduced a bill authorizing the people of territories to elect all officers, which was similarly referred.

Mr. Bingham introduced a bill providing that the present system of mileage be abolished, after the present Congress, and members be allowed only their actual traveling expenses.

Mr. Morris, of Illinois, introduced a bill for the admission of sugar and salt free of duty, and a bill giving the right to the territories to elect Governors and all other officers.

Mr. Washburne, of Ill., introduced a bill providing for the laying out of a post route from Leavenworth to the head waters of the South fork of the Platte river, near Pike's Peak.

Mr. Farnsworth, of Ill., endeavored to introduce a resolution instructing the Committee on Naval affairs to inquire and report what further measures are necessary to carry out the article in the Ashburton treaty, for the suppression of the slave trade.

Mr. Blair, of Mo., asked, but failed to receive consent to introduce a resolution declaring the Supreme Court's decision in the Dred Scott case, extrajudicial, illegal and void, and asserting that Congress should vindicate its right to legislate on slavery in the Territories.

Mr. Phelps, of Mo., from the Ways and Means Committee, reported the Civil, Naval, Executive, Legislative and Judicial appropriation bills.

Mr. Parrott, of Kansas, introduced a bill to reduce the Military Reservation, and to trace the northern boundary of Kansas.

A large number of bills and resolutions, on a variety of subjects, were introduced, and referred to their appropriate Committees.

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.

The Government this morning received a telegraphic despatch from New Orleans, giving a few particulars relative to another filibustering expedition from that port, against Nicaragua. The Federal officers will be instructed to redouble their vigilance to suppress it.

The object of Senator Brown's resolution was to confer the Brevet rank of Admiral in the Navy on Com. Stewart, who, he said, all would agree, had been harshly treated by the retiring board. There seems to be no doubt but that it would pass.

In connection with the naval restorations in the executive session of the Senate yesterday, after the re-opening of the doors, a joint resolution was passed creating, temporarily, the Brevet grade of the Admiral in the United States Navy, with a view to confer it on Capt. Chas. Stewart, the oldest officer in the service, as a recompense for having been harshly treated. On his death the rank is to be abolished.

The time within which the creditors of Texas must present their claims at the Treasury, is extended until January 21st, 1862.

The Secretary of War has asked Congress for nearly $400,000, to pay the Florida volunteers, called into service by General Harley and Col. Loomis, during the years of 1857-8.

Among the many bills introduced into the House to-day, was one by Mr. Branch, of N. C., appropriating $1,000,000 to enable the President to conclude with Spain, a treaty of amity, and for the settlement of all differences including the cession of Cuba, to be used by him if he thinks fit, in advance of the ratification of such treaty by the Senate. If there is not at the time payment is required, that much money in the Treasury, the President is authorized to borrow it. The bill was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

Georgia Legislature.

AUGUSTA, Dec. 23.

In the amended tax bill it is provided, (section 3d) that each manager of any lottery, authorized by the laws of this State, shall pay to the State Treasury $1,000 annually, free of all costs of collection, and in case of failure to pay the same, the said manager, or his agent, shall be subject to the same penalty in the collection of taxes as is now provided for in defaulting banks

FRIDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 24.

Anti-Assumption Meeting.

The people of Green county are invited to attend a meeting at the Court House in Monroe, on Friday, the 24th inst., at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of discussing the important question of State Assumption.

The assumptionists have held two meetings in the county (at Brodhead and Monroe) and occupied nearly the whole time at each meeting in the discussion of the assumption side; it is now proposed to have the other side more freely discussed, with a fair allowance of time to the assumption side.

The above call, numerously and respectably signed by men of all parties, appears in the last Monroe Sentinel. We learn from the same paper that two Assumption Meetings have already been held in Green County, one at Brodhead and the other at Monroe, and that, thanks "to the courtesy of the M. & M. R. R. Co., in carrying citizens to and fro, free of charge," they were very well attended. We hope, by the way, that our Monroe namesake will not be anathematized by the News for mentioning this little incident in connection with the Assumption meetings. At the meeting at Monroe, speeches in favor of the Assumption Scheme were made by Mr. CAULIS, President of the M. & M. R. R. Co., Dr. WEEKS, of Milwaukee, Mr. DURAND, President of the Racine and Mississippi R. R., and Mr. CONDEE, of Monroe. After they had got through, Mr. STOUT was called out and opposed the measure in an off-hand speech. A vote was then taken, which indicated a pretty equal division of sentiment, which, adds the Sentinel, "under the circumstances must be deemed a triumph of the Anti-Assumptionists." The meeting on the 24th (to-day) will, no doubt, embody the sentiments of Green County on this question. Whether the "courtesy" of "free tickets" will be extended by the M. & M. R. R. to those who may wish to attend this gathering, we are not advised.

An Opinion as is an Opinion.

The Cooperstown Freeman's Journal, whose Democratic principles have never been questioned—a journal that has swallowed dose after dose of very nauseous political medicine—quotes the following from the President's Message:

The Supreme Court of the United States had previously decided that all American citizens have an equal right to take into the Territories, whatever is held as property under the laws of any of the States, and to hold such property there under the guardianship of the Federal Constitution, so long as the territorial condition shall remain."

To which it appends the following emphatic comment:

If by this the President designs to sustain the doctrine advanced by a few ultra men at the South, that Congress is bound to protect slave property by special enactment, in the absence of Territorial laws to that effect, an issue will be raised directly, in which nearly the entire Democracy of the Free States, and many in the Slave States, will take the negative.

To which the Rochester Union adds:—"I too, Katy!"

THE ENGLISH AND MONTGOMERY AFFAIR.—The account of the affray between Congressmen ENGLISH and MONTGOMERY, given by the Washington Star, and telegraphed to the Press throughout the country, is pronounced by Mr. MONTGOMERY as incorrect and one-sided. His statement as given to the correspondent of the New York Tribune shortly after the occurrence is as follows:

I have not spoken to English this session or taken any notice of him when we met, as we have occasionally. The reason is that he made a speech to the crowd who serenaded him on the night of the passage of his bill, in which he said that he associated with me and other anti-Lecompton Democrats only to find out our plans and defeat us. From that time I have looked upon him as a treacherous spy and an unfit associate for gentlemen. About noon to-day I was walking down Pennsylvania avenue, and had just passed Willard's and crossed Fourteenth street, when I saw English coming toward me, holding out his hand, saying, "How do you do Mr. Montgomery."

I made no answer, but passed on without any sign of recognition. I had walked a few steps when I received from behind a very violent blow on the left side of my head, given with such force as for a moment to stagger and confuse me.

I had not the least idea who or what had struck me, but turning round I saw English with a large cane, which he held in both hands, and from the position in which he stood, and the direction of the blow, must have so held when he struck me. He exclaimed:

G—d d—m you, I'll teach you to insult me in that way.

He stepped backward quickly as he spoke. I rushed at him, and as I was about to close with him, when he drew a sword from a cane and presented it at me. As I had no weapon of any kind, I stepped off the side-walk and picked up a piece of brick, which I threw at him hitting him on the leg. He kept retreating, and before I could find another missile, had got to such a distance that it was useless to pursue him.

Two persons, WILLIAM COUCH, and DANIEL COX, witnessed the affair. Mr. COUCH gives his version of the affray as follows, which confirms Mr. MONTGOMERY's statement in every particular:

"Mr. English spoke, saying, 'How are you, Mr. Montgomery?' Montgomery neither spoke nor paid any attention to this salutation, but passed on down the Avenue. Mr. English stepped after him a few steps, and struck him from behind, with his cane, a very heavy blow on the side of the head. Montgomery turned on him. English stepped back, and drew his sword cane, as though about to stab Montgomery with it.—Montgomery stepped back into the Avenue, and caught up a piece of brick. English was running, when Montgomery threw the brick and hit him on the heel or lower part of the leg, Montgomery went back for another stone, and English ran rapidly away up Fourteenth street. When Montgomery came back, English had run a half square, and was beyond his reach. We were the only persons close by. We saw and heard all that passed. Montgomery did not speak until after he was struck."

Daniel Cox fully corroborates Couch's statement, but says:

"I should add that Mr. Montgomery was unarmed, and that Mr. English held a cane in both hands and struck with great force."

THOMAS REED REEVES, a hackman and grocer, who was standing on the opposite corner and saw the latter part of the affray, corroborates these witnesses.

MONTGOMERY went immediately to a magistrate and made a charge of assault against ENGLISH, who has been held to bail. MONTGOMERY's face was badly bruised by the blow, which caused blood to flow profusely. He has kept his room since, and is attended by a physician.

The Tribune's correspondent adds:

"Had the cane struck an inch or two higher so as to hit his temple instead of his cheek, he would most probably have been killed.

The fact that Montgomery had already twice passed English, on Saturday, without speaking, shows that the attack was premeditated."

This places the matter in an entirely different light from that in which the telegraph report represented it.

LARGE SALE OF SLAVES.—Col. ABRAHAM VAN BUREN, of Columbia, S. C., recently sold to Col ELISHA WORTHINGTON, of Chicot county, Arkansas, his whole plantation of slaves, numbering 210, for $147,000, or an average of $700. The terms of the payments are five annual instalments of $29,400 each, with interest from date. Col. VAN BUREN is a son of Ex-President VAN BUREN, and married the daughter of Col. SINGLETON of South Carolina. Mrs. VAN BUREN is the sister of the late Mrs. Gov. MCDUFFIE.

BRAZIL AND PARAGUAY.—It is said that Brazil will render aid to Lopez in his contest with the United States, on account of his having supplied some horses to that Government. Others contradict this statement, however.

The Assumption Scheme.

MR. EDITOR:—The first plan proposed by the projectors of the State Assumption Scheme having met the fate which should await every succeeding plan for the carrying of the same general object, and the supporters of the measure not deeming it advisable, or not having the honesty or courage to mature and publish a second before the sitting of the Legislature, we really have no question before the people for discussion, except the broad question, whether this species of assumption is, first, constitutional, and, second, if constitutional is it politic.

The first question will turn upon a second, whether this species of indebtedness is of a public character within the meaning of the constitution of the United States. I take it for granted that no one will claim that private property can be taken by the public for private use. It can only be taken for public use upon full compensation to the individual from whom taken—therefore if these debts are of a private nature, the majority of the people of this State have no power to say, either under our present State constitution or un for it as amended, that the minority shall contribute directly by taxation or indirectly to the loss of the State credit to the liquidation or assumption of them. The proposition is a short one, but not free from difficulty, because many of our sister States, under pressure of seeming necessity, have decided, that rail roads are public institutions, and that private property may be taken for their uses and purposes, upon payment of the value of the property taken, and because in some instances States have granted aid to the construction of rail roads; but because other States have gone thus far, it by no means follows, either, that such action was constitutional (although with due deference to the authority from which these legislative and judicial acts and decisions have emanated we should at first tho't be inclined to suppose it so,) or that ours is a parallel case to theirs.

New York, it is true, built her Canel. But who will honestly compare the Canal of New York, upon which every one may run his boat, upon paying to the State a single toll, with the monopolies here, and now sought to be christened public institutions? Again, it is true that the same State did lend her aid in carrying through the Erie road. In this her action differed from the action proposed here. Our roads are through, the enterprises have been grasped with avidity, sought out by speculators, and successfully completed, mostly by individual enterprise, but, to some extent, aided by city, town and county credit; but all such towns, counties and cities were actuated, firstly, by speculating, selfish motives, the advancement and prominence of themselves. Our case, then, differs from New York, and all other States, in her situation, in that the necessity does not exist for the developing of the State, because it is already so far developed.

Were it necessary, I should agree that all such State aid, resulting in the construction of the works of private corporations, is unconstitutional. But we are not required to go thus far, because the main ground upon which such aid has been based, is wanting in this case; that is, the necessity of developing the country. This is the ground alone upon which the courts have sanctioned the taking of private bonds, for the right of way for railroads, and upon full compensation at that.

Is this, then, a private use? Suppose one man, of sufficient pecuniary ability, should build a rail road from Milwaukee to Bay field, should buy the right of way, where it was not voluntarily given him, and when complete should run the same at his own private expense, charging such rates of fare and freight as he might adopt, does any one see that this undertaking differs from the building of a lumbering establishment by the same person and in the same way? True, the benefits are more extended and further diffused in the case of the railroad, still they are strictly both private enterprises, begun and concluded for private individual ends; now, I take it, that it makes no difference whether one man or a thousand, got up and completed such an enterprise, it is one and the same; it is said, because every one along the line of such road, or in the vicinity of such lumbering establishment is incidentally benefitted thereby, that they are public improvements.

This certainly is not the criterion whereby we judge of, and decide whether an undertaking is public in its nature, the mere fact of benefit accruing to the individual is never taken into consideration. A public enterprise must be one in which all share alike the benefits, one open to all; the Erie canal comes near to such an one.—Plank roads, if built, and the proceeds owned by the State, also nearly illustrate my idea of public improvements, for which it might be proper to tax the State, every one having an equal privilege in using, and sharing equally in the proceeds. I submit that, judging by the strict rule of private and constitutional right, anything short of this, fails to be a public enterprise.

And I believe further that if, in our own State, at this day, it were an open question, and unentrammelled by the decisions of other States, whether railroad companies could take possession of private property for their company purposes, without the consent of the owner, we should have a decision against such rights.

It has been for long years contrary to the principles of the great Democratic party of the United States, to appropriate the funds of the Government to the improvement of localities, upon the ground that the whole were not equally benefitted; and many of our greatest statesmen have, and still maintain the doctrine, and, although of the opposite party, I nevertheless believe that strictly speaking, the Democratic party is the correct doctrine. Policy goes many times a long way in influencing action; hence principle is many times lost sight of in the desire to accomplish a given end.

This democratic doctrine applies to, and settles the present question. All are not equally benefitted by these railroads. The few owners receive the direct benefits, while of the many, some are so far remote as to receive none. As to whether this Scheme is politic, I may, at a future time give my views; space will not now permit.

"Assumption" in Green County.

BROADHEAD, Dec. 21st, '58

EDITORS SENTINEL:—"Assumption in this latitude, although close to a Railroad, is dead, or rather, it never had life to any serious extent, and there is no question but what it would in any form be voted down even in Little Green.—The strongest advocates of the system admit this much. Judge HOWE's article has torn the mask from the monster and exposed his native ugliness in a masterly manner, and from here a few spasmodic kicks and convulsive throes will be all the sign of vitality he will exhibit. Amen.

THE SPECIE CIRCULAR.—The circular of Treasurer Hastings may be, and probably is, in strict accordance with law, in requiring the county treasurers, to pay over the State tax in coin.—Still, we submit, whether if a State authorizes a paper currency, it ought not to refuse the laudable example of trusting in it. What is sauce for the goose ought in all conscience to be sauce for the gander. If paper is not good enough for the people in their corporate capacity, it is not good enough for them in their individual capacity.—Madison Argus.

Very well, then let the Legislature apply the remedy by repealing the law which exacts coin in payment for taxes; but while the law stands on the Statute Book, surely Treasurer HASTINGS has no distinction in the matter. We are aware that his Democratic predecessors pursued a different course, but it was done in violation of law. Mr. HASTINGS is not the man to follow a bad example.

The Sixth Infantry.

The arrival and passage through our streets of the Sixth Regiment United States Infantry, created no little excitement in the city yesterday. So unusual and interesting an event was well calculated to excite the wonder of our people.—It is rarely that the spectacle is presented in a time of peace, of a full regiment, completely equipped, accompanied by its baggage train, hospital wagons, artisans' shops, herds, loose animals and other details of a moving camp, marching through a State capital. It is the first time that so large a body of troops has passed through Sacramento, and probably the first time that so large a portion of the army has ever been seen in regular marching order within the borders of California. In 1847, Col. C ik's Battalion, composed of volunteers enlisted from the Mormons, crossed the continent by a southern route and entered the lower part of this State, where they disbanded. General Kearney's command of dragoons, which arrived and took part in some of the battles in the southern country during the Mexican war, also crossed overland. With these exception, all the troops destined for the Pacific Division have been transported by sea to this country, and in the same way transported from place to place up and down the coast, as the exigencies of the service have required. This has been an expensive mode of proceeding for the Government, and surprise has often been expressed that the War Department should choose this course in preference to land marches.

In 1857, Secretary Davis was induced to make an exchange of regiments on the Missouri frontier for one (the Fourth Infantry, we believe,) stationed in Oregon, both regiments to come overland. Orders were issued to that effect, but for some cause we have never fully understood, they were countermanded. The Sixth Infantry is the first regiment that has crossed the Plains to California.

But what has made their journey more interesting is the fact that it is the longest continuous march performed by the foot soldiers of a regular army of which there is any record in history. The distance which this regiment has travelled, on reaching Benicia, is just 2,100 miles. The Sixth Infantry left Fort Leavenworth on the 27th of May, and expect to arrive at their destination (Benicia) on the 15th of November. They will therefore have been 190 days on the march, not counting those of departure and arrival. Or, taking the number of marching days, as the regiment remained in camp on Sundays, the duration of their journey, all performed on foot, will have been 162 days. They have averaged about 160 miles per week. In this long march the regiment has not suffered the loss of a man, nor been afflicted with sickness beyond the usual portion of an army in the field. A portion of the route traversed by through a country studiously represented in Washington as inhospitable and even hostile, and it has been travelled at a season deemed unfavorable, if not, for a small part of the distance inclement. Yet not only are men and animals in a good condition for the termination of so long and hard a journey, but there has been no loss of stock worth mentioning. Out of about 1,100 mules the loss has only been about 80.—The original destination of the Sixth Infantry was Oregon. It was intended that they should cross into the scene of the late Indian disturbance in the North, falling on the rear of the hostile tribes. But the harness of the season in which they arrived at Fort Bridger determined Col. Andrews to take his command into California and place them under the immediate disposition of the Commander of the Division. This has proved a fortunate circumstance, for the troops, not being needed in Oregon, will be sent to garrison San Bernardino, San Diego, San Francisco, Presidio, Benicia and Fort Humboldt, where they are really wanted.

The regiment left Fort Bridger on the 21st of August. They marched from that point by the Bear river route via Soda Springs, taking Hudspeth's cut off, which brought them into the trail followed by the Salt Lake mail coaches, near the point known as the City of Rocks. The distance by this route is much less than that usually traveled, being only 295 miles from Fort Bridger to the junction of the cut-off with the mail route. The water and feed was good on the Humboldt, and neither soldiers nor stock suffered in the least from skill. There was no inconvenience from want of water on the desert. The difficulties of the journey began only within a few days' journey of our frontiers. On the 15th of October, at the Big Bend of the Carson river, they experienced a fall of snow. It lay only a few inches but it occasioned the loss of a few animals. The regiment had reached Carson Valley when the heavy storm of the 21st set in, which visited all the northern portion of the State, spent its fury in that mountainous region. There was a snow storm which lasted, with slight intermissions, three days. The greatest depth of snow through which the troops had to travel on the mountains was eighteen inches, and it was of short night inches. Between Carson Valley and Placerville, they made their worst day's marches, traveling sometimes only two and four miles. This, Gen Hancock informs us, was the only really hard place in the route, but that its difficulties will be wholly avoided on the new grade now construc ing. The men bore the fatigue well, and their general conduct is favorably represented by their officers.

They appear to have been well fed on the way. About 6,000 pounds of bread and a similar amount of bacon have been their weekly rations, along with small stores. Beef cattle have been driven over from Fort Leavenworth, and issued at about eight per week. There were about 150 in the herd when it started, and there are still 60 head remaining. The daily issue of barley has been about 10,600 pounds, and since their dependence on the feed along the route ceased, about 14 600 pounds of hay per day has been issued. The cost of forage is not less than $800 per day, and for ration about $300. The number of troops comprising the regiment is 600, and there are 200 employees, chiefly teamsters and mechanics. Three women, only, are attached to the regiment, as laundresses. There are 188 six mule teams, 4 mule spring wagons, with 150 extra animals. The whole number of mules is about 1,080. They are mostly American stock, the remnant of the Salt Lake Army animals. As this devouring army has passed through the towns since entering our State, the rates of provender have gone up, and subsided only on its leaving, a very rare and curious phenomenon.

The Sixth Infantry is one of the most distinguished regiments in the service. It was Colonel (afterwards General) Taylor's regiment in Florida, and with it he won his laurels in several hard fought contests. In Mexico, the Sixth won similar honors, suffering terribly in the actions of Cherubusco and Molino del Rey. It made some famous marches in that country, passing from General Taylor's to General Scott's wing after the battle of Buena Vista. Some of its officers received wounds in Florida and Mexico. The Colonel of the regiment is Brevet General Clarke, Commander of the Department of California in the Pacific Division.

The following is a list of the present officers of the Sixth Infantry: Lieut Colonel Geo. Andrews (in command.) Brevet Lieut. Colonel Wm. Hoffman, Captain Wm S Ketchum, Captain Charles S. Lovell, Brevet Major Edward Johnson, Captain Thomas Hendrickson, Captain Rensselaer Foote, Brevet Major Lewis A. Armstead, Captain Richard B. Garnett, Captain Franklin F. Flint, Brevet Captain Winfield Scott Hancock (Quartermaster,) Lieutenants Levi O Bootes, Darius D. Clark, William P. Carlin, James L. Corley (Adjutant) Elisha G. Marshall, Benjamin F. Smith, Silas P. Higgins; Second Lieutenants H. F. Lee, Edward Dillon, Montgomery Bryant, Charles G Sawtelle (Acting Assistant Quartermaster,) John McGleary, Aaron B. Hardcastle Orlando G. Moore, Owen K. McLemore. Several of the officers of the regiment are absent.

The troops passed through our city yesterday between ten and eleven o'clock. They attracted much attention, and although in fatigue dress, travel-worn and dusty, presented a good appearance. The column moved down J. street and crossed the bridge, encamping about three miles from Washington, in the edge of the tules. In the city they were preceded by their field and regimental bands, playing lively airs, and followed by their train of nearly 180 wagons, the rear brought up by some forty to fifty soldiers under arms guarded by a detachment detailed by the officer of the day.

The camp was visited in the afternoon by a large number of ladies and gentlemen, who witnessed the exercises of guard mounting with great pleasure. It was a source of much regret among our citizens that the shortness of the stay of the regiment here our city prevented our extending to them the usual hospitalities. The officers speak in high terms of praise of our country and climate, and the reception given them along the route, particularly by the citizens of Placerville. In speaking of their long journey they award great praise to the manner in which the Quartermaster's Department has been conducted. Of course they look forward to their arrival at Benicia, as a period of relaxation and repose, with great satisfaction. They should reach Benicia in four days.

We should not omit to notice that the Sixth Regiment are armed with the new percussion cap rifle musket, with Maynard's patent primer attached. It is a terribly destructive weapon, its range being eight hundred yards. The camp is also provided with Sibley's tents, a great improvement on the old army tent.

AN AMERICAN ROMULUS.—A goat at New Orleans is suckling a child which has lost its mother by the yellow fever. Frequently the quick cares of the quadrupedal wet nurse hears the child's cry when she is browsing in the street, at some distance from the house, and, leaving her own repast, she darts hastily off to supply the wants of the "motherless bairn."

"Pay Up!"

CHICAGO, NOV. 7, 1858.

To the Hon. Stephen A. Douglas:

DEAR SIR—Permit me as President of the 7th Ward Democratic Club to congratulate you upon your well fought and hard earned victory over your and our country's enemies; and most heartily wish you many years of health and happiness to enjoy your enviable reputation.

With respect to our Ward Club, I would inform you that the same was organized some four weeks before election day, and upon being elected President, I forthwith set to work to carry out the objects thereof, and ther found that we had commenced at least a month too late, I therefore threw aside my business, (being a very humble member of the same honorable profession in which you first distinguished yourself,) and devoted my whole time to the common cause. In conjunction with one or two members of our Ward Committee, I personally canvassed the greater portion of the Ward, called our meetings, (which by the way, were the largest Ward meetings I ever saw,) and worked incessantly until the day of election, both late at nights and early in the morning.

I felt I deemed absolutely necessary in order to counteract the rising influence of the German Republican Club of this Ward, and the result will be seen when I tell you that last spring the Republicans beat us 227, this election, notwithstanding Baker's gold and the Administration office-holders' influence, they beat us only 55 and next spring we will beat them by higher figures.

On the morning of election I had more than two hundred men at the polls at one-half past four o'clock, where I remained until after six in the evening nearly knee deep in the mud. I was promised the necessary funds to bring in and keep the boys comfortable during the day, but from some mismanagement, the money got into wrong hands, and I was under the necessity of incurring liabilities individually for necessary refreshments throughout the day, and now because the Executive Committee gave me no authority to do this, they feel that they would not be justified in paying these expenses, although under the circumstances and owing to the well known character of "the boys" of this Ward, it was positively required that I should do what I did. I think probably the Committee may be right, as it might, they say, be setting a bad precedent to others. I trust you will excuse my touching you with these facts, and I would not have done so, but having a family to provide for, with but poor prospects of making anything professionally this winter, and having spent every cent of my own money on the election, I thought you might be disposed to consider the matter personally. I would add that since I was elected President I have attended to but one professional case, and in that I gave my services free in return for the use of the party's house for one of the ward meetings, and I am glad to say that both the meeting and the suit were successful.

I will not further trespass upon your valuable time than to bring up to your notice Mr. Thomas Brennan, who, at the same time with myself, gave up his business, (being a ship-carpenter) and gave most valuable assistance to the cause.

I have the honor to be

Your most obedient serv't,

JAMES LLOYD.

The foregoing letter was handed to Judge Douglas at the Tremont House, and in reply to which he stated that a considerable sum of money had been deposited with the association to meet the demand therein mentioned, and therefore himself could do nothing more than to speak to the Committee and request the payment of the bills incurred. Whether he did so, or not, we cannot say, but this we do know that the Committee now refuses to pay one cent.

The Committee state that several hundred dollars were given to Robert Law to expend in the 7th Ward but it is believed that $25 will cover all his expenditures on account of that Ward.

In addition to the foregoing I would remark that the same dissatisfaction exists in the 8th and 9th Wards, and the means exhibited by the Democratic association induces the parties subscribing the foregoing to back about, and at the March election, and, in fact, before, to organize a Club on Republican principles in conjunction with the German Republican Club, already in existence.

If the foregoing facts are of use to the party, the same are at the service of the proprietor and editor of "The Democrat" to make such remarks in that paper as he may deem fit. J. L.

WEAKNESS OF THE STOMACH AND INDIGESTION. ANOTHER GREAT CURE EFFECTED BY BRANDRETH'S HOLLAND BITTERS.—The wife of Pieter De Witte, living in Holland Town, Sheboygan county, Wisconsin, suffered much from Weakness of the Stomach and Indigestion. She had been under a physician's care for some time, but the disease seemed to baffle even his skill. She purchased some HOLLAND BITTERS at our office, which has given tone to her stomach; her appetite and strength are returning, and we firmly believe that this is another great cure effected by your medicine.

We have still to record many wonderful cures effected by this remedy, but must wait another opportunity. One thing you can rely upon, what we have published are from persons much respected in our community, and are literally true.

Confessions of a Table-Mover.

George P. Paine, the Spiritual Medium, Admits that he is a Humbug—The "Razor Strop Man in a Circle—How the Phenomena were Produced.

For a long time Mr. George P. Paine, of Worcester, Mass., has been known as a powerful "physical medium," and his achievements in the line of table-moving have converted hundreds of people to Spiritualism, and has been an argument in the mouth of its believers. His demonstrations were given in the dark, like those of the Davenport boys, but under a full blaze of gas, or in broad daylight. He has made tables move apparently without human contact, to the comfort of believers and the confounding of skeptics.

The Worcester Spy, of the 26th October, contained an account of one of his exhibitions, in which the table was so moved, and "Yankee Doodle" rapped out on it in good style, in time with the whistling of a gentleman present

From time to time "reliable mediums" saw spirits hovering about Mr. Paine, and he was in a fair way of becoming a lion among the Spiritualists.

Recently Mr. Paine came to this city, mainly for the purpose of convincing Mr. Coles, a former medium, who has recently concluded that physical manifestations are a humbug. For this purpose a circle was held in Mr. Paine's rooms, and Coles, with several others, attended, and were unable to detect any deception. At a second interview, however, he, with Mr. Henry Smith, the "Razor Strop Man," and Mr. Waters, of Worcester, determined to sift the matter to the bottom. Mr. Paine, on being requested to change the position of the table, refused, alleging that it would destroy the "conditions."

At last a small hole in the floor, and a rent in the carpet, were discovered in close proximity with the table legs. The three gentlemen named proposed to take up the carpet; but Mr. Paine demurred, and requested them to call next day. Mr. Coles and his associates, however, determined not to yield the point, and gave Mr. Paine clearly to understand that they would not leave the room until they had taken up the carpet.

Mr. Paine, finding that he could not stave off an examination, finally acknowledged that the whole thing was a fraud; that he had cheated, not only on this occasion, but from the beginning; his wife and his most intimate friends, as well as his numerous converts, having been the dupes of his premeditated deception.

Mr. Coles stated these facts in the Spiritual Conference on Wednesday evening, in the presence of Mr. Paine; and, after he had concluded, the bogus medium got up, publicly acknowledged the fraud, and defended it on the ground that the end justifies the means. He believed that the great share of the reputed spiritual phenomena are sham, although he was of opinion that some of them are real. He stood commended to his own conscience, and counted it among his treasures in heaven that he had charged nothing, although small pecuniary had, from time to time, flown into his earthly coffers; his labor had been one of love. He had resorted to deception in order to meet deception, and ultimately expose it.

Having defended his course, Mr. Paine exhibited a piece of No. 2 wire, as the veritable apparatus by which he had moved tables, and converted hundreds to Spiritualism.

Asking for Bread and Getting a Stone.

From the N. Y. Evening Post.

The example of the Democrats, who, on Thanksgiving day, said of the result of the recent elections, that "the didn't know what he or his party had to be thankful for," has been closely imitated by Hugh S. Walsh, "acting Governor of Kansas Territory." Some gentleman of Wyandot City, K. T., having requested Mr. Walsh to appoint a day of Thanksgiving for the people of the Territory, that functionary declines to comply, saying that "were an epidemic to be raging in one of the countries of Kansas, it would be unfeeling for the remainder to be shouting Hosannas and praises to the Almighty, nothing being then appropriate except fasting and prayer." So," continues Mr. Walsh, "since the notorious James Montgomery has recommended his system of plundering and murdering in Linn county, encouraged the spirit in support of a leading Republican press in the Territory, it would be quite inappropriate and unfeeling on my part to recommend Thanksgiving, as you desire," and so on.

The reasons for this announcement are equally extraordinary and amusing. There is an alledged breach of the peace, in Linn county, and Acting-Governor Walsh cannot allow the people of the rest of the Territory to be thankful for the favors of Providence, though he is willing to appoint a day of fasting and prayer. The people solicit a day for public praise, but the Governor prescribes sackcloth and ashes.

The difficulty, such as it is, has grown out of a breach by the pro-slavery party men of the amnesty agreed upon last summer, between Governor Denver and the Free State men represented by Captain Montgomery. It is no more than an ordinary street riot; but the chance for an obscure person to recommend himself for Executive favor, by the manufacture of political capital, was too good to be lost.

TO THE PUBLIC.

In answer to the numerous letters addressed to me on the subject of the Mustang Liniment, I would say that I have had no connection with that article for several years. It was created by me, and while not up under my control and supervision, was universally accepted by the public, as the best liniment in the world. In 1854 I sold out my interest in it to other parties, and since that time it has passed through the hands of several persons who do not know how to manufacture it as originally manufactured by me. These parties, to enable them the with more facility to foist their worthless and injurious article on the public, use my name as its nominal label, and represent it as the genuine liniment, and cautioning the public to beware of any other Bragg's Liniment as an imposition. This is done with a view of exciting a prejudice against "BRAGG'S ARCTIC LINIMENT," an article more generally known by me, and possessing all the virtues of the original Mustang, with some improvements—the result of experience, and the later discoveries—and manufactured by Bragg & Burrows, which, for it is composed of my own Oliver T. Bragg, and Michael Burrowes. This article is superior in many respects to the Mustang, when it was put up pure and in good faith, and is immeasurably superior to the article now vended as the Mustang Liniment. It is also the only liniment manufactured in which my name is appended by my authority or consent. In conclusion, I cannot hold myself responsible for any of the evil results of using the Mustang Liniment now vended, and especially at the public disclaim of any connection with the preparation by the manufacturer.

Respectfully, A. M. BRAGG, M. D.

COMMERCIAL & FINANCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL, }
Thursday Evening, Dec. 23, 1858. }

The demand for wheat continues brisk with moderate receipts for the season, and rather an upward tendency in prices. Both No. 1 and extra spring wheat are eagerly sought for, and the millers have to compete with the warehouses, as considerable of what arrives is going into store. Some very choice samples of extra spring went at high as 95c, and ordinary lots sold at 90a92c. The range for No. 1 is as before, 74a77c, and white winter 85a91, 05. Oats, barley, and rye are steady as last reported, the latter rather scarce. There is a wide range in prices of barley. That which usually comes to this market sells at 67a75c, but nice bright samples for brewing will readily bring 80a85c. During the past week or two considerable quantities of grain have come in by team—more, probably, than at any other time during the past four or five months.

The hog trade was not very lively to-day for the reason that there were but few in, and those were mostly taken at an improvement of 10a12½c on yesterday's prices. Hogs averaging 280 pounds and upwards sold readily at $3a3 95. The receipts are as follows:

By M. & M. R. R.	65 head.
By M. & P. V. R. R.	10 do
By M. & H. R. R.	16 do

The market for hog products has undergone the same change as that for hogs, and holders are now firm at the highest prices of the season. An offer of $16 for 500 bbls mess pork for February and March delivery was rejected by one of our large dealers to-day.

Flour, bbls	423	Grass seed, bus	47

Barley, bus	46	Dressed hogs	99
Rye, bus	278	Poultry, bbls	5

RICHARDSON'S
IRISH LINENS!
Damasks, Diapers, &c.

CONSUMERS of Richardson's Linens, and those desirous of obtaining the Genuine Goods, should see that the article they purchase are sealed with the full name of the firm,

Richardson, Sons & Owdon,

This caution is rendered essentially necessary, as large quantities of inferior and defective Linens are prepared, season after season, and sealed with the name of RICHARDSON, by Irish Houses, who, regardless of the injury inflicted alike on the Linen and American consumer and the manufacturers of the genuine Goods, will not readily abandon a business so profitable, while purchasers can be imposed upon with Goods of a worthless character.
